PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS, CHAPTER 16

With this award we want to honor policies, projects, initiatives, institutions, start-ups and in very exceptional occasions, individuals, whose performance towards achieving the goals of this chapter should receive recognition.

A prime example of an initiative we find commendable regarding the sixteenth UN Sustainable Development Goal -Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions- is the European Observatory of Memories, which aims to reflect on the recent history of the struggle for democracy and freedom in Europe, advocating for a plurality of memories¹. If you know any project, initiative or policy deserving the Award on this particular category, reach them out to apply now.

Therefore, Entreprs appreciates the active work of those who have a significant impact in the implementation of these targets, which include the Sustainable Development Goals, established in 2015 by the United Nations, as well as more objectives which contribute to a more sustainable world. This is why the role of the Global Jurors specialists able to highlight the projects that they believe deserve to be recognized, is crucial.

Being a Global Juror just takes an hour per year from you, giving you private access to an online platform to nominate and vote, plus preferential access to the Congress and Awards Gala.

IMPORTANCE OF PROMOTING JUST, PEACEFUL AND INCLUSIVE SOCIETIES

According to the United Nations, the threats of international homicide, violence against children, human trafficking and sexual violence are important to address to promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development. They pave the way for the provision of access to justice for all and for building effective, accountable institutions at all levels.

While homicide and trafficking cases have seen significant progress over the past decade, there are still thousands of people at greater risk of intentional murder within Latin America, Sub-Saharan Africa and around Asia. Children's rights violations through aggression and sexual violence continue to plague many countries around the world, especially as under-reporting and lack of data aggravate the problem.

To tackle these challenges and build a more peaceful, inclusive societies, there needs to be more efficient and transparent regulations put in place and comprehensive, realistic government budgets. One of the first steps towards protecting individual rights is the implementation of worldwide birth registration and the creation of more independent national human rights institutions around the world. In order to achieve this, ten targets have been added to the Sustainable Development Goals Agenda set in 2015².
